COUNCIL CHAIR TURNER TO PRESENT PROCLAMATIONS AND CERTIFICATES TO BOWIE HS LADY BULLDOGS

Varsity and Junior Varsity Basketball Teams to be Recognized for Outstanding Athletic and Academic Achievements

Prince George's County Council Chair Ingrid M. Turner, District 4 will present Proclamations and Certificates of Recognition to the Bowie High School Varsity and Junior Varsity teams during a special recognition event on Friday, May 6, 2011, 1:00 pm at Bowie High School, 15200 Annapolis Road, Bowie, MD 20715.

Council Chair Turner looks forward to honoring the athletes with proclamations and special certificates of achievement. "I am so proud of both teams and their outstanding athletic achievement on the court and their stellar academic achievement off the court. Both the Lady Bulldogs Varsity and JV teams maintained a cumulative 3.5 grade point average throughout the season, which is very impressive."

The Bowie High School Girls' Varsity Basketball Team, the Lady Bulldogs will be recognized for capturing the Maryland 4A South Regional Championship for the first time in almost two decades. The Lady Bulldogs achieved an outstanding overall 17-1 record in the Maryland 4A South Regional Championship to bring home their first banner for winning the county regular season title.

The team has been trained and mentored under the dedicated and skilled leadership of Head Coach Michael Hines who earned his 100th win this season. He was assisted this season by Assistant Coach Darren Witherspoon.

Council Chair Turner will also present certificates to the Bowie High School Girls' Junior Varsity Basketball Team, the Lady Bulldogs, who will be recognized for having a perfect record this season. They earned an outstanding overall perfect season after a victory over Dr. Henry A, Wise High School, 65-37, to complete a 17-0 season.
