COUNCIL MEMBER TURNER IS RECIPIENT OF PRESTEGIOUS COMMUNITY AWARD

Turner was honored to receive Community Award from the Collective Banking Group, Inc.

Prince George's County Council Member Ingrid M. Turner, (D), District 4, was the recipient of the Community Award presented by The Collective Banking Group, Inc. (CBG) during their 13th Anniversary Awards Fundraising Gala. The gala was held at the Camelot by Martin's in Upper Marlboro on Friday, December 12, 2008 at 7:00 p.m.

The award is given to individuals who are serving the community in accordance with the CBG's vision "...to stimulate and actualize economic empowerment in the African American community and other underserved communities..." The CBG states that the gala pays tribute to community leaders who promote and foster the ideals of economic empowerment.

Council Member Turner expressed how honored she was to receive such an award. "I truly believe that in order to have a fulfilled life, one must serve others. I am humbled and proud to serve the residents of Prince George's County, District 4 because I am able to help members of my own community in a greater capacity. I thank the Collective Banking Group for presenting me with the Community Award; it is an honor and a blessing."

CBG Board Member and Pastor of Greater Mt. Nebo AME Church, Reverend Jonathan L. Weaver praised Council Member Turner's efforts in the community. "Ingrid personifies public service excellence. She is deeply committed not only to her constituents, but also to the broader Prince George's County community. Her outstanding community service made her an easy choice to receive the Community Award from the CBG this year."

The CBG forcefully advocates the black church as the most effective vehicle to bring about economic empowerment, wealth building, and a community of educated consumers. The CBG, a Christian ministry, draws together leaders from the faith, business, and public service sectors to develop and enhance economic empowerment strategies for our members and communities they serve.
