COUNCIL MEMBER TURNER HONORED DURING “BEST OF BOWIE” AWARDS CEREMONY

Turner Recognized by Bowie High PTSO for “Making a Difference” in the Lives of Students

Prince George's Council Member Ingrid Turner (D) - District 4, has been recognized as one “Bowie's Best” by the Bowie High School Parent-Teacher-Student Organization (PTSO). The honor came during the “Best of Bowie” awards ceremony sponsored the PTSO on December 18. The event was held at the Bowie Center for the Performing Arts.

Honored for her involvement and hands on approach for arriving at solutions, working together with the parents, students and teachers and her grants contributions to include the Courtney L. Manning Scholarship Fund, Council Member Turner appreciated the recognition, and the opportunity to present “Best of Bowie” award to co-honorees Delegate Gerron Levi, the City of Bowie Council, Sid Wheeler owner of Cetrone's Pizza, Sheriff's Deputy Adam Tiafour, Janna Zubberm and Toni Adams.

“Bowie High School students consistently set a standard of excellence. I support and applaud the hard work of the students, faculty and parents and encourage others to do so. The establishment of the Courtney Manning Scholarship Fund is evidence of the excellent work being done, and it was my privilege to contribute to the scholarship named in his honor.”

The scholarship was established by the Bowie High School PTSO in memory of slain Bowie High School student, Courtney Lawrence Manning, Jr. and is awarded to a deserving member of Courtney's graduating class who will pursue a degree in education. PTSO President, Mary Nusser said, “Council Member Turner was present at the PTSO meeting when the scholarship was discussed and she immediately stepped up to the plate to contribute. Council Member Turner is involved in the community and one of Bowie's Best.”
