

Bowie State Bowling Champions Recognized by City and County Officials

The City of Bowie and the Prince George's County Councils recognized Bowie State's Lady Bulldogs bowling team and our coaches for winning the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Women's Bowling Championship. Our Lady Bulldogs defeated the defending champions, Elizabeth City State University, in Durham, N.C., in March. Our bowling team also won the championship in 2005 and 2006.

City council members include:

- Mayor G. Frederick Robinson
- Mayor Pro Tem James Marcos
- Dennis Brady
- Diane Polangin
- Isaac Trouth
- Todd Turner
- Geraldine Valentino-Smith

You can view the proclamation from the City of Bowie by clicking here.

Councilwoman Ingrid Turner, District 4, presented the Bowie State bowling team with a proclamation from the Prince George's County Council.

The Bowie State University community gives a special thank to Pamela Fleming, with the City of Bowie, as well as Tomeka Bumbry and Lochelle Ferguson, with the Prince George's County Council, for helping to coordinate this notable recognition. You can view more pictures from the City and County Council's recognition event online by clicking here.

For more information about the Lady Bulldogs bowling team click here.