COUNCIL MEMBER INGRID TURNER PRESENTED WITH PRESTIGIOUS 2009 CIVIC LEADERSHIP AWARD

Prince George's Community Foundation Honors Meritorious Service to Prince George's County

Prince George's County Council Member Ingrid M. Turner (D) – District 4, is the honored recipient of the 2009 Prince George's Community Foundation Civic Leadership Award, celebrating her meritorious service to Prince George's County. The esteemed award was presented to Council Member Turner on April 23, 2009 during the 2009 Civic Leadership Awards "A Time to Care" event, at Camelot by Martins in Upper Marlboro, Maryland.

The Prince George's Community Foundation Civic Leadership Awards were created to recognize, honor and promote outstanding community leadership in Prince George's County. Council Member Turner joins two of her colleagues who were previous recipients of the award—Council Members Samuel Dean and Camille Exum. Upon accepting the honor, Council Member Turner expressed thanks to her supporters.

"I would like to thank the Prince George's Community Foundation Board of Directors, staff and awards committee for this honor. Your recognition of my leadership is one not to be taken lightly. I am most thankful for my parents who instilled the value of leadership and community service in me – to whom much is given, much is required. I would also like to thank my family and friends, most importantly you, the Prince George's County community for your support of my work on your behalf."

The Prince George's Community Foundation, a regional affiliate of the Community Foundation for the National Capital Region, fosters charitable giving and community involvement throughout Prince George's County by bringing together the County's philanthropic, business, nonprofit and government sectors to exchange ideas for enhancing our communities.
