COUNCIL MEMBER TURNER PRESENTS CERTIFICATES OF RECOGNITION TO OUTSTANDING ATHLETES AT BOWIE HIGH SCHOOL

Bowie High School athletes are recognized for their successes

Prince George's County Council Member Ingrid M. Turner (D) – District 4, presented Certificates of Recognition to the outstanding athletes on the golf and volleyball teams at Bowie High School on Monday, November 30, 2009.

Council Member Turner expressed her admiration for the dedication and hard work both teams demonstrated to win the championships. "I am very proud of these outstanding athletes who are committed to their sport and to their education. These young people have set an example for other student athletes to follow."

Robert Estes, the Bowie High School Athletic Director appreciated Council Member Turner's special presentation. "I thank Council Member Turner for making this very special presentation to our winning teams. We truly appreciate it."

The Bowie High School Golf team is proud to hold its highest title as county champions and state qualifiers. Their team members include Gabriella Sinkovic (who earned 6th place in the state tournament), Mason McCoy, Steve Hyre, James Martinez, Joseph Ward, Taylor Legall, Jason Moeder, Michael Carolina, David Hochman, Andrew Brow and Alex Stevenson.

The Bowie High School Volleyball team earned the title of county and regional champions as well as state semi-finalist. Their team members include Brittany Griffith, Siri Ngundam, Jehan Assata, Yaje Ngundam, Jessica Van Horn, Heather Garnto, Candice Dillard, Tiffany Eller, Danielle DiGregory, Loretta Owens, Emily Archer, Casey Sohyda, Ashley Corporal, Kristina Hill, and Paris Morrissey.
